
Title: Pen & Quills, By Laws

Author: Galdor

Mission Statement

We are a storytelling guild dedicated to the entertainment of our fellow citizens.

While our primary focus is entertainment we strive to preserve the memories and experiences of those who were here before us.

We also strive to chronicle the events happening around us.

By Laws

1. Any citizen of Sosaria may petition to join our ranks. This appointment will be probationary until he/she submits a story to the guild. Upon acceptance of the story full membership will be granted.

2.The guild will hold a formal meeting once every two months for the purpose of conducting business and reviewing submitted stories.

3.We are not the grammar police, nor punctuation pixies. That said all storytellers should strive to use acceptable english grammar and not use netspeak in the presentation of their stories. Reasonable care should be taken to eliminate typos and spelling errors to better reflect our reputation as communicators.

4.We will accept adult oriented stories. However not all appreciate that kind of material. Stories of a bawdy nature should post a warning of the content so that those who wish may avoid them.

5. We are totally nonviolent. There will be no tolerance of aggression either between members or with other guilds. Any hostile combat action will result of expulsion from the guild.

Afterword

I hope that through our efforts to chronicle the world around us the rich experience that is UO will be preserved for those who will come after.

Galdor.
